COUNTRY 2011 To 12 OIL OF GETTERN Y REPORT NO. 25X1A TOPIC AITTIELD OF KOETHEN 25X1A EVALUATION 25X1ALACE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE OF CONTENT 25X1ALACE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE OF CONTENT 25X1ALACE OBTAINED 12 September 1845 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 4 TWF) 1 - 4 Photographs REMARKS SIX 1As 1840 U-28 SiX 1As 2840 U-38 Twellve Yak-0s Twellve Y		Approved For Release 2002/08/14 : CIAPIDES 2004/01/01/2019
COUNTRY 10 1 20 0 of Germany REPORT NO. 25X1A TOPIC AITTIELS OF KOETHEN 25X1A EVALUATION 25X1A ACE OSTAINED 12 September 1945 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a Type) 1 - 4 Photographs REMARKS SOURCE 1. The following aircraft were at the KOETHEN (X 58/D 95) Aight LU-2s Two low Yuk-9s Two low Yuk-9s Two low Yuk-9s Two low Truches Evaluation of the State of the string of the undred sir torco flying personnel were stationed at the stringle, and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Intercraft guns were not observed in the vicinity of the air- The observed airraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airrield has not changed since late July 1949, it is ALL Comment: The observed airraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airrield has not changed since late July 1949, it is ALL Comment: The observed airraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airrield has not changed since late July 1949, it is ALL Comment: The observed airraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airrield has not changed since late July 1949, it is ALL Comment: AND Comment: The observed airraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airrield, confirm the photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airrield, confirm the reported occupation by fighters. Scoten-IIIs, lowerer, are not	يرلي	A STATE OF THE STA
EVALUATION 25X14ACE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED 25X14ACE OBTAINED 25X1A REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE) 1 - 4 Photographs REMARKS SOURCE 1. The following aircraft were at the MORTHEN (X 52/D 95) airfield: bight U-2e Six Las Twelve Yek-9s The Destroills, Local flying was done with the Ya. fighters. 2. Devannel were stationed at the stricted. All officers and flying personnel were decorations. The units were relieved by personnel from the MOSCOW area. 5. The construction of garages for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4	D	P. CLASSIFICATION SECRET-
EVALUATION 25X12MACE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OF CONTENT. 25X1A REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE) 1 - 4 Photographs REMARKS SOURCE 1. The following aircraft were at the KOETHEN (M 52/D 95) airfield: Alght U-2s Six LAs Twelve Yek-9s Two Boston-111s. Local flying was done with the Xa fighters. 2. Pageannel were stationed at the diritield. All officers and flying personnel were stationed at the diritield. All officers and flying personnel were decorations. The units were releved by personnel from the MOSCOW area. 3. The construction of garages for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Intaircraft cums were not observed in the vicinity of the sir- 11ed. 5. The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X10 25X11 assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Neks, such an air reconnaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-11 is and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN air field, confirm the reported accupation by fighters. Sesten-111a, however, are not discernible.		2EV4A
DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED 25X10ATE PREPARED 12 September 1948 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 1 - 4 Fhotographs REMARKS REMARKS Solution 1 - 4 Fhotographs REMARKS REMARKS REMARKS Six Lis Two Boston-11Is. Local flying was done with the Ya. flighters. 2. Deviannel were stationed at the stricto. All officers and flying personnel were decorations. The units were relieved by personnel from the MOSCOW area. 3. The construction of granges for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Initialreraft runs were not observed in the vicinity of the air- Tield. 5. The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X1A Comment: The observed airraft types indicate that the occupation of the KONTHEN airrield has not changed since late July 1940. It is will assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yelfs, and an air recommaissance regiment, equipped with Soston-11is and Las, are stationed at the airrielt. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 pintographs, which were taken at the KONTHEN air field, confirm the reported roupetion by fighters. Resten-111s. Lowever, are not discernible.	TOPIC	Airfleid of KOETHEN 20XIX
DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED 25X10ATE PREPARED 12 September 1948 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & WPE) 1 - 4 Photographs REMARKS REMARKS REMARKS Solution 1 - 4 Photographs REMARKS REMARKS REMARKS Local flying aircraft were at the ROWTHEN (N 52/D 95) blight U-2e Six Las Two Boston-111s. Local flying was done with the Ya. flighters. 2. personnel were stationed at the stricted. All officers and flying personnel were decorations. The units were relieved by personnelly atoring facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 3. The construction of grages for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Initialreraft runs were not observed in the vicinity of the air- The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X1A Comment: The observed airraft types indicate that the occupation of the KONTHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is will assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yelks, and an air recommaissance regiment, equipped with Soston-Ilis and Las, are stationed at the elifelic. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached pinotograbs, which were taken at the KONTHEN air field, confirm the reported coupation by fighters. Foston-Ilis, however, are not discernible.	PS/AL HAT	25X1X1405 055414
DATE OBTAINED 25X10 ATE PREPARED 12 September 1948 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TWE) 1 - 4 Photographs REMARKS REMARKS REMARKS SOURCE 1. The following aircreft were at the KOETHEN (M 5E/D 95) airfield: Alght U-2s Six LAs Two Poston-11Is. Local flying was done with the Ya. fighters. 2. personnel were stationed at the eligiblers. 3. The construction of garages for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Interreft guns were not observed in the vicinity of the air- Tield. 5. The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X10 25X11 Comment: The observed airreft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1942. It is "till assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yaka, are as affected the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The atched 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN air field, confirm the reported compation by fighters. Sesten-Liis, however, are not discernible.
SOURCE 1. The following aircreft were at the KOETHEN (M 52/D 95) airfield: 1. The following aircreft were at the KOETHEN (M 52/D 95) airfield: 1. The following aircreft were at the KOETHEN (M 52/D 95) airfield: 1. The following aircreft were at the KOETHEN (M 52/D 95) airfield: 1. The following was done with the Ya. Tighters. 2. Determined were stationed at the stricted. All officers and flying personned were decorations. The units were relieved by personned from the MCSCOW area. 3. The construction of garages for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Initialreraft runs were not observed in the vicinity of the air-iield. 5. The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X10 25X11 25X1A Comment: The observed airraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is attill assued that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yelto, are an air recommalisance regiment, equipped with Moston-111s and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported occupation by fighters. Fosten-111s, however, are not discernible.
SOURCE 1. The following aircraft wereat the KOETHEN (M 52/D 95) airfield: Dight U-2s		in the second of
SOURCE 1. The following aircraft were	PAGĘS_	1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) 1 - 4 Photographs
at the KOETHEN (M 52/D 95) airfield: Bight U-2s Six LAS Twelve Yak-9s Two Boston-11Is. Local flying was done with the Ya. fighters. 2. personnel were stationed at the airfield. All officers and flying personnel were decrations. The units were relieved by personnel from the MOSCOW area. 3. The construction of garages for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Intiaircraft Tuns were not observed in the vicinity of the airfield. 5. The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X11 25X14 Comment: The observed aicraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is atill assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yelfs, and an air reconnaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-Ilis and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported compation by fighters. Fosten-IIIs, however, are not discernible.	REMARKS	}
at the KOETHEN (M 52/D 95) airfield: Bight U-2s Six LAS Twelve Yak-9s Two Boston-11Is. Local flying was done with the Ya. fighters. 2. personnel were stationed at the airfield. All officers and flying personnel were decrations. The units were relieved by personnel from the MOSCOW area. 3. The construction of garages for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Intiaircraft Tuns were not observed in the vicinity of the airfield. 5. The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X11 25X14 Comment: The observed aicraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is atill assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yelfs, and an air reconnaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-Ilis and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported compation by fighters. Fosten-IIIs, however, are not discernible.		SVAT-HATE
at the KOETHEN (M 52/D 95) airfield: Bight U-2s Six LAS Twelve Yak-9s Two Boston-11Is. Local flying was done with the Ya. fighters. 2. personnel were stationed at the airfield. All officers and flying personnel were decrations. The units were relieved by personnel from the MOSCOW area. 3. The construction of garages for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Intiaircraft Tuns were not observed in the vicinity of the airfield. 5. The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X11 25X14 Comment: The observed aicraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is atill assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yelfs, and an air reconnaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-Ilis and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported compation by fighters. Fosten-IIIs, however, are not discernible.
at the KOETHEN (M 52/D 95) airfield: Bight U-2s Six LAS Twelve Yak-9s Two Boston-11Is. Local flying was done with the Ya. fighters. 2. personnel were stationed at the airfield. All officers and flying personnel were decrations. The units were relieved by personnel from the MOSCOW area. 3. The construction of garages for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Intiaircraft Tuns were not observed in the vicinity of the airfield. 5. The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X11 25X14 Comment: The observed aicraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is atill assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yelfs, and an air reconnaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-Ilis and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported compation by fighters. Fosten-IIIs, however, are not discernible.
at the KOETHEN (M 52/D 95) airfield: Bight U-2s Six LAS Twelve Yak-9s Two Boston-11Is. Local flying was done with the Ya. fighters. 2. personnel were stationed at the airfield. All officers and flying personnel were decrations. The units were relieved by personnel from the MOSCOW area. 3. The construction of garages for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Intiaircraft Tuns were not observed in the vicinity of the airfield. 5. The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X11 25X14 Comment: The observed aicraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is atill assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yelfs, and an air reconnaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-Ilis and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported compation by fighters. Fosten-IIIs, however, are not discernible.	SOURCE
Eight U-2s Six LAS Two Boston-Ills. Local flying was done with the Ya. fighters. 2. personnel were stationed at the sirficid. All officers and flying personnel were decorations. The units were relieved by personnel from the MCSCOW area. 3. The construction of garages for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Intiaircraft guns were not observed in the vicinity of the airfield. 5. The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X11 The observed airraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is still assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yaka, and an air recommaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-Ills and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported accupation by fighters. Poston-Ills, however, are not discernible.
Twelve Yak-9s Two Boston-lits. Local flying was done with the Ya. fighters. 2. personnel were stationed at the alrield. All officers and flying personnel were decorations. The units were relieved by personnel from the MCSCOW area. 3. The construction of garages for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Intiaircraft guns were not observed in the vicinity of the sirfield. 5. The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X1A Comment: The observed aicraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is still assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yaka, and an air recommaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-lils and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported compation by fighters. Boston-lils, however, are not discernible.		Light U-2s
Dood flying was done with the Ya. fighters. 2.	\ 	Twelve Yak-9s
parsonnel were stationed at the airfield. All officers and flying personnel were decorations. The units were relieved by personnel from the MOSCOW area. 3. The construction of garages for tank trucks and large earthbunkers, apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Intiaircraft tuns were not observed in the vicinity of the airfield. 5. The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X1A Comment: The observed airraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is still assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yaks, and air reconnaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-Ills and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported occupation by fighters. Boston-Ills, however, are not discernible.
25X1A Comment: The observed airraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is attill assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yeks, are stationed at the airfield. This assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Seston-Ills and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supposted by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported occupation by fighters. Boston-Ills, however, are not discernible.	2.	personnel were stationed at the airfield. All officers and flying personnel were decorations. The units were relieved by apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on. 4. Initialroraft runs were not observed in the vicinity of the airrield. 5. The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X10 25X11 The observed airraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is still assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yaks, and an air reconnaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-IIIs and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN air field, confirm the reported occupation by fighters. Boston-IIIs, however, are not discernible.		personnel from the MOSCOW area.
The following motor vehicles were seen at the field: 25X10 25X1A Comment: The observed aicraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is "till assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yeke, are an air recommaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-IIIs and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported accupation by fighters. Boston-IIIs, however, are not discernible.	3.	apparently storing facilities for fuel barrels, was going on.
Z5X1A Comment: The observed aigraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is still assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yaks, and an air reconnaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-IIIs and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported occupation by fighters. Boston-IIIs, however, are not discernible.	4.	antiaircraft guns were not observed in the vicinity of the air-
The observed airraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is still assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yelks, are an air reconnaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-IIIs and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported compation by fighters. Boston-IIIs, however, are not discernible.	5.	The following motor vehicles were seen at the field:
The observed aicraft types indicate that the occupation of the KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is still assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yaka, are an air reconnaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-IIIs and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported occupation by fighters. Boston-IIIs, however, are not discernible.	To see of "	25X1C
KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is still assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yeks, are an air reconnaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-IIIs and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is supported by the reported motor vehicle numbers. The attached 4 photographs, which were taken at the KOETHEN airfield, confirm the reported occupation by fighters. Boston-IIIs, however, are not discernible.	25X1A photographs, which were taken at the KONTHEN air field, confirm the reported coupation by fighters. Boston-IIIs, however, are not discernible. 1 honex: 4 photographs		KOETHEN airfield has not changed since late July 1949. It is still assumed that both a fighter regiment, equipped with Yaks, and an air reconnaissance regiment, equipped with Boston-IIIs and Las, are stationed at the airfield. This assumption is an oran control propagation and purpose or pagazing and the control of the contro		reported coupation by fighters. Boston-IIIs, however, are not an oran control propagation and purpose or pagazing and the control of the contro
A ALLEMA DE LA CITATE DE CONTRA DE C		and the control of th

25X1

Approved For Release 2002/08/14: CIA-RDP83-00415R003700020017-0

ILLEGIB

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt